iUniverse, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you believe in ghosts? How do you react when told a true ghost story? They seem anachronistic in our scientific society, and yet they endure. In one of the most unlikely of U.S. cultures, read the supernatural belief tales that persist: A spirit, cursed by Brigham Young, who watches over the young males living in a Salt Lake City house A Logan Canyon campground that reverberates with the obscene carnage of innocents--or does it? A Salt Lake City chapel possessed by something dark and malevolent A theater in Logan with a resident, and permanent, critic A Salt Lake City park that replays a bloody accident A broken urn in a Salt Lake City ossuary, guarded by the angry occupant A monument in Logan Cemetery that paces protectively around a family s graves A mine near Scofield still echoing the horrors of the worst industrial accident in Utah history Ghost legends act as a declaration of faith. Even the most dubious of tales contain a kernel of truth, surrounded by what we want to be true. Repeating them is a type of group support and affirmation of that faith.
