States Revenue-Marine Service, holding the grade of captain, and commanding the United States revenue steamer Corwin. In obedience to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, I cruised in the North Pacific Ocean from March 9 to May 16, 1892, for the purpose of investigating the habits of the fur seal when at sea. During these investigations I had occasion to take the depositions of a number of natives and white men familiar with the subject. During a portion of September, all of October, and a portion of November these investigations were continued in the vicinity of the Aleutian Archipelago, and a number of depositions were taken also from the natives of the Aleut villages situated thereon. No depositions were taken by me from the natives of Vancouver Island, nor from the natives from any other localities except as previously indicated. In no instance was liquor in any form given by me, or by anyone on my vessel, to any affiant; no affiant was under the influence of liquor when his statement was made; no undue influence of any sort or description was used; no gratuities were given; only such witness fees were paid as would be a fair compensation for loss of time when such loss of time actually occurred, and the testimony obtained was given freely and willingly. Two hundred and eighty depositions were taken, and the aggregate fees paid was 69. 50. C. L. Hooper. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day...
