Excerpt: .block and a vast garden and yard to each lot. The streets are eight rods in width and the sidewalks on each side twenty feet. There are to be shade-trees along the sidewalks. Each block is surrounded with a stream of limpid water, coming down in abundance from the mountains. Every house stands twenty feet from the street line. and no two houses are built opposite each other, so that a man in his own front door cannot look into that of his neighbor. but has a fine view of his garden. There are four great public places. which will be adorned with beautiful fountains and trees brought from the four quarters of the globe. The square of the temple will have a fine garden. Already their missionaries have made arrangements in the Eastern States, in England, France, Italy, Denmark, Germany and the I406 HIEROGLYPHICS AND ROCK SALT. islands of the sea, to make collections of the choicest seeds and fruits, or anything else that can serve for the embellishment of this garden. By the first plan the city contained I 3 5 blocks; since then there have been added 65 blocks on the east and 60 on the west of the city. The University place is a mile square. It is barely three years since the first house was built in this city and to-day there are several thousand comfortable houses, built of sun-dried bricks, and they have an abundance of all the...
